Dear Sirs:

Your letter of 1 June 1977 has been received. Because of the importance of your communications' role in the Emergency Measures Organization, I am pleased to grant your request for power and space at the Haeckel Hill Lookout Tower under the following conditions:

- a. A monthly fee of $4.00 will be charged, to be paid yearly in advance on 1 April. A charge of $40.00 will be assessed for the current fiscal year ending 31 March 1978.
- b. This lease will be renewable from year to year, and may be cancelled by either party on presentation of written notice to the other party.
- c. Your society must agree to save harmless Her Majesty from and against all claims, demands, losses, costs, damages, actions, suits or proceedings by whomsoever made, brought on or prosecuted in any manner based upon, arising out of, related to, occasioned by or attributable to any action undertaken by the Crown or its employees. It is also agreed that no other implied obligation of any kind by or on behalf of Her Majesty shall arise from anything in this lease.

Please indicate your acceptance of these conditions and return the original of this agreement, together with payment of $40.00 payable to the Receiver General for Canada, to the above address.

Yours truly,

Brian J. Trevor
